

Small Particles, Big Issues: PRIORITYze DEI

Issue 28: An inclusive and accessible strategic plan for a living lab for social innovation

Dear all,

We hope this email finds you well.

How can a living lab be made truly inclusive and accessible to all?

In his new article, we explore how the integration of an equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI) framework can transform a university living lab into a model of sustainable, community-based social innovation. Learn about the six strategic areas that have been identified to create lasting impact and strong community engagement, focusing on accessibility, sustainability and well-being.
