Issue 29: Good practices on gender mainstreaming in the European Green Deal: Towards a more gender-equal and greener Europe

Dear all,

We hope this email finds you well.

Climate change is not just an environmental challenge—it's a social one, deeply affecting inequalities, including gender equality. The latest publication from the European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) explores how integrating gender considerations into the European Green Deal (EGD) can create a fairer and more sustainable Europe.

Discover 12 good practices on gender mainstreaming within the EGD, showcasing successful initiatives that promote equal representation and inspire solutions for gender equality across Europe.
